From the Clubhouse

Good evening and a warm welcome to you all, and to Horley Town, our visitors tonight in this Southern Combination Challenge Cup. As the current holders, we aim to defend the Cup and join past back-to-back winners such as Slough, Met Police, Addlestone, Feltham, Walton & Hersham, and Molesey. We also welcome Tyler and his new team, who recently took over from Martin Rapson earlier this month.

Our previous encounter at the end of October saw a late goal by Will Kendall to grasp a draw in the league, what were the odds on that? It was written in the stars!

I have heard that some of you were not happy with the decision on Saturday and some were, I suspect that a pair of Copa Mundial's were the real reason for it being slippery!

We received sad news on Monday morning that Pete Grover has passed away.

Pete "Grandad" Grover lived on the Longmead Estate and was an HGV driver. He was a supporter of the Club during the West Street days (occasionally driving the team bus to away games) and regularly worked the bar on match days. His partnership behind the bar with Derick Hayles led to the pair being nicknamed Del Boy and Grandad. He leaves a wife and two daughters; our thoughts and prayers are with the family.

Today's homemade soup in tomato and Basil.

Enjoy the game!

From the Bench

We welcome everyone back to Chalky Lane tonight for our Tuesday night cup game against Horley Town. Our last home outing was unfortunately abandoned in bizarre circumstances, and we want to thank those who came out in the torrential rain. We're sorry you didn't get to see a full game of football.

With not much to report since Saturday, having not completed the match, it's worth highlighting the positives from the first half. The boys delivered a strong performance against a very good Badshot Lea side who we fully expect to be pushing at the top end of the table this season. The movement of the ball, the patterns of play, and the chances created were all encouraging signs and built nicely on the momentum from our win at Sheerwater. Saturday also gave fans their first chance to see new signing Tyler Robinson at home. He looked a really exciting prospect, and we're confident he will continue to grow into an important player for us. We are also delighted to confirm the return of Adam Green. We all know how valuable he is to us on and off the pitch, and bringing him back was an easy decision. His leadership, experience, and presence are huge assets, and along with additions like Tyler Robinson and Sammi Nabbad, he strengthens the balance and competition within the squad.

We also say goodbye to Jason Vincent, who has been a fantastic addition during his time with us. We wish him all the best as he moves to his more local club in Redhill. We look forward to seeing him again later in the season and thank him for everything he gave in blue and white.

Tonight provides another opportunity to show the full depth of our squad. In leagues like ours, where fixtures come thick and fast, success is never just about the starting eleven but about a strong group of 25–26 players. We have a very talented squad, and we want to ensure everyone gets the chance to showcase themselves and compete for their place. On injuries, there isn't much new to report. Toby Young and Callum Wilson remain sidelined, while Niall Stilwell faces a longer spell out. He undergoes surgery this week, and we wish him well in his recovery. Jason Bloor missed the weekend with a minor knock, but we expect him to be available for the away trip to Tooting & Mitcham.

Tonight is our last home game for a short spell, with our next match here on 12th December against league leaders Cobham. We've been strong at home this season, and with the win at Sheerwater, we hope to build more consistency on the road and climb the table. We welcome Horley Town once again, just weeks after their last visit. This cup means a great deal to the staff, players, fans, and board after last year's success, and we aim to continue our good form by taking another step forward tonight.

Welcome to Horley Town

Founded in 1896 as Horley Football Club, the club first affiliated to the Surrey County Football Association that year. From the outset the club became a focal point for the local community in Horley, Surrey.

In 1903 a neighbouring club, Gatwick Rovers, was formed; the two clubs merged in 1908 under the Horley name. In their earliest years the colours were red and black, but by 1912 the club adopted the claret & blue colours which remain proudly worn today.

During the inter-war years Horley made steady progress. After reaching the Surrey County Junior Cup Final in 1923-24, the club captured the Surrey Junior Charity Cup in 1924-25 and soon the club entered the Surrey Intermediate League. The 1926-27 season saw the club crowned League Champions, marking the first major piece of silverware in the club's history.

After the Second World War, the club faced the challenge of securing a proper permanent home. Generous local benefactor Major A.L.N. Jennings gifted 10.7 acres of land in Smallfield Road; in 1947 the club moved to this ground, which was named "The Defence" in honour of those who fell in defence of the realm. In 1950-51 the club won the Eastern Section of the Surrey Intermediate League and were admitted to the Surrey Senior League for the 1951-52 season. However, this senior spell proved difficult, and by 1954-55 the club found itself back in junior football. In 1956 the club regained intermediate status, and by 1957-58 it had expanded into youth football, entering its first youth side in the Redhill & District League.

The 1970s brought the club its finest period. With the village of Horley growing into a town, the club formally changed its name in 1974 to Horley Town Football Club. In the 1976-77 campaign the club crowned a superb league and cup double, lifting the Surrey Senior League title and the League Cup. At the same time it reached the Surrey Senior League Charity Cup final, further underlining its position as a strong force in local senior football.

Following this era of success, the club accepted the challenge of broader competition. In 1978 Horley Town joined the Premier Division of the London Spartan League. After three seasons in Spartan competition the club entered the Athenian League in 1981-82. When the Athenian League disbanded at the end of the 1983-84 season the club transferred to the Combined Counties League (formerly the Home Counties League), where it would become a longstanding pillar.

In the mid-1990s the club hit a low point: after finishing bottom of the Combined Counties League in 1995-96 the club dropped into the Crawley & District League. However, in 2002 the club joined the Surrey County Senior League and in 2003 gained promotion to the Combined Counties League Premier Division. In 2006 ground-grading issues meant relegation to Division One, but a strong response saw the club finish as Division One runners-up in 2006-07 and promptly regain Premier Division status.

Welcome to Horley Town

A further major milestone arrived in September 2003 when the club moved into its current home, “The New Defence”, located behind Horley Leisure Centre and Court Lodge Road. The modern facility sits on the same sporting footprint as the club’s historic ground and reflects the club’s ambition as a well-established community hub.

The early 2010s saw further evolution: the club emphasised its community role and youth development arms, embedding itself firmly as a “club for all ages” in Horley and the surrounding area. With resilience on the pitch, the club recorded strong league finishes and mounted promising cup runs. In 2017-18 the club reached the Fourth Round of the FA Vase for the first time in its history—a testament to the progress built over decades.

In recent years, while navigating the shifting landscapes of non-league football, the club has remained a constant presence in the Combined Counties League Premier Division (or equivalent lateral transfers) and continues to compete strongly both on and off the pitch. The present day sees Horley Town FC combining competitive senior football, a dynamic youth structure and strong links with the local community.

From its humble origins over 125 years ago to now, Horley Town has grown with the town of Horley, adopting a tradition of sporting pride, community engagement and stability. As the club looks ahead, it remains anchored by its motto of serving Horley and the surrounding area—fielding teams, providing facilities and inspiring youngsters—while fiercely preserving the colours, name and spirit that have defined the Clarets for well over a century

Player to Watch: Cameron Gyeabour

Cameron Gyeabour has quickly become one of Horley Town’s most exciting attacking players and a constant threat for opposition defences. Known for his explosive pace and powerful running, he gives the Clarets a direct edge whenever he’s on the pitch. Cameron is at his best driving forward with the ball, taking on defenders and turning tight situations into goal-scoring chances.

His movement off the ball is just as important. Always scanning for space, he times his runs well and stretches backlines, creating openings for teammates and giving Horley a valuable outlet during transitions. That blend of speed, strength and awareness makes him a key figure in the team’s attacking identity.

Gyeabour’s work rate is another standout trait. He presses tirelessly, forces mistakes, and sets the tone from the front. Still developing and improving with every match, he has the potential to become one of the league’s standout forwards.

For supporters looking for energy, excitement and unpredictability, Cameron Gyeabour is definitely the player to watch this season.

Round up from the Combined Counties League

Let me begin by looking at the other matches in our division that took place on Saturday after our home game against Badshot Lea which was abandoned by the match officials at half time. Cobham increased their lead at the top of the table as some of the chasing clubs dropped points or did not have a game apart from Tooting & Mitcham who bounced back from their humbling 5-0 defeat on the previous Tuesday to in form Knaphill by winning at bottom of the table Guildford City 4-1. What of in form Knaphill? They surprisingly lost at home 2-1 to lowly Thatcham Town. With some teams not playing it gave some of the clubs outside the play off positions time to catch up as there are only 7 points separating 6th place and 13th place. The main mover was Corinthian Casuals who beat Fleet Town 2-0 which was a fine result considering they played a vast majority of the game with ten men; Fleet have not had a good couple of weeks, but I am sure they will bounce back soon enough. Apart from title chasing Cobham, Horley Town are on a great winning run having take 16 points from a possible 18.

Guildford City are rooted to the bottom of the table and are now 12 points from safety and have played 21 games already so have only 17 to go. The bottom of the table is also very tight with 3 points separating the teams in 15th place and 19th place. At this juncture of the season it gives me a chance to review the season so far as most teams are coming to the half way point or some have even passed that stage already.

It goes without saying that the 'stand out' team are Cobham who have a vast deserved lead at the top of the table and have only played 17 games. Whilst at the other end of the table Guildford City have been cast adrift with only 6 points from 21 games. I would be very surprised if these teams lose those current respective positions. There is an interesting predicted table on the website 'Football Web Pages' for our division which uses some form of analysis to predict the final table and puts Cobham winning the league with a 35 point difference; I doubt if that difference will come to pass, but I do not think it will be very wrong. For Guildford it predicts they will end on 10 points which would relegate them now as of today's date. This table is worth keeping a cursory look at as it is updated after each result. It will be very interesting to note as of today what that table predicts for the play off positions as I am sure these will change over the rest of the season, all it needs is a team/s to go on a good winning run and they could secure their place quite easily.

Lastly, I will make one comment on the attendances that were noted last Saturday. They were nearly all markedly down which can only be put down to the bad weather. However, we have all heard of the term that the team were being watched by 'one man and his dog' that was probably true at the Met Police home match against Ascot United where the attendance was published at 20!!!.
