AMMONDS

From the Top - With the Hereford FC Chairman

Good evening and welcome to the MandM Edgar Street Stadium. I'd like to extend a warm welcome to our visitors from Bedford Town tonight and wish them a safe journey to and from the game.

As we all know, Bedford are newly promoted to the National League North this season and I'd like to congratulate them on their magnificent promotion last season. Winning the Southern League Premier Central Division last season was an outstanding achievement and it shows exactly what they are capable of as a team.

While they come into this match off the back of three consecutive defeats, all three matches were against teams that have started the season well and it's clear they have competed well in them all. There is no doubt it can take time to adjust to a step up in level, but I'm sure Bedford will be up for that challenge and that they will be looking to get back to winning ways tonight.

We come into this fixture off the back of an excellent and thoroughly deserved win over Alfreton Town on Saturday. We started the game well and then a moment of individual brilliance from Andy Williams put us ahead. It was a goal that probably only he is capable of scoring for us and the finish really was exquisite.

We then built on that goal with impressive performances all over the pitch, with the second goal just after half time making things a little more comfortable. It was particularly pleasing to secure a clean sheet, as I'm sure that breeds confidence across the pitch for everyone.

As mentioned above, I felt there were impressive performances all over the field, but I must make a special mention of debutant, Michael Parker, who joined us on loan from West Bromwich Albion on Friday.

I have rarely seen a debut as assured as that and in some ways his calmness in possession spread confidence through the team and really got us playing. I very much look forward to seeing how he develops during his spell with us.

While no-one was panicking internally at the club, there is no doubt that we all felt much better on Saturday night. Football is a stupidly emotional game – which I completely understand – but it is still important to remember it isn't the most important thing in the world, no matter how hard that seems.

From a purely personal point of view, it was certainly better to enjoy a weekend without any personally abusive messages being shared with me!!!

Finally, one other thing that stuck out on Saturday was the quality of the support provided to the players from the stands and terraces. Given our difficult start I thought the attendance was excellent, with the noise created terrific too.

Once again thank you all for your commitment and loyalty to our club, and please get right behind the lads once again tonight.

Best wishes,
Stig

PAUL

CADDIS

From the Dugout - With the Hereford FC manager

Good evening,

I'd like to wish Bedford Town FC management staff, players, and supporters at the M&M Edgar Street Stadium for this evening's National League North fixture.

Bedford are a newly promoted team and will be looking to make an impact in the division, and a team that's managed by a real experienced man in Lee Bircham. Lee has done an amazing job, and when you win promotion as a football club, you build up a winning mentality, and that's something we will be aware of. We know how difficult the game will be but one that we will embrace.

Saturday's home game was a result we all longed for. If you were to handpick the toughest opponent to come up against after two poor home results, I am sure Alfreton and Billy Heath's team would be at the top of most of our lists. We had to be robust and defend our box, and I thought to a man we did exactly that. I must say the support was brilliant once again, and I appreciate it's been frustrating at times, but stick with us because you really do make a huge difference.

I look forward to seeing you all, and we will do all we can for a positive result.

Thank you.
Paul

AT THE DOUBLE

A brace for Andy Williams brought up his 25th goal involvement for the Bulls at the weekend. We spoke to the Hereford striker after Saturday's win over Alfreton Town.

Andy Williams as at the double on Saturday as his goals hepled secure all three points against Alfreton Town. It hasn't been the best start for the Bulls but Saturday marked our first home win of the season.

"I'm delighted" Williams said, "It's a massive win for us and it's long overdue. It's been frustrating some of our away performances haven't been bad but we didn't the results we deserved"

It's now 3 starts and 6 apperances for Williams this season, and he's loving his time out on the pitch.

"I've had a few starts this season, I just want to play as much football as I can.

"The days are ticking away in that respect but it's great to be out there. I can still play 90 minutes as I've shown and hopefully I can still be a massive asset for this team."

His fitness is something Williams prides himself on and made sure to follow the wise words of Tony Ford and Graham Turner during his first stint at the club.

"It's just a number, I've looked after myself since the start of my career. I have to owe a lot to the people at this club at the start of my career, Tony Ford and Graham Turner, for teaching me how to look after myself from day one.

"I don't drink, I don't smoke, I don't do anything that damages your health and it pays you back eventually. I feel as fit as ever"

A special opening goal set the tone for the match as Williams struck from the edge of the area.

"I wanted the pass to come onto my right but the pass into me was firm so I had to chop and get the effort away on my left.

"I back myself on both feet. That's what I'm trying to teach the kids, you've got two weapond down there if you can use both feet.

Bedford Town Football Club was formed in 1908 and has had a mixed history, that has seen it reach the higher levels of non-league football, with some notable cup runs on the way.

Bedford Town Supporters in 1956 holding the iconic 'Play Up Bedford' flag during the FA Cup third round replay against Arsenal at The Old Eyrrie

The Eagles started life playing in the United Counties League, and its predecessors the Northampton League and Northampton Alliance. In 1945 they moved to the Southern League but had little success until 1951 when player/manager Ronnie Rooke joined the club. Having a well-known former England and topflight footballer, inspired the local population to back the club, which paid off with some notable scalps in the FA Cup in the mid 50's when Bedford saw national fame as giant killers. Notable victories included Watford 3-2, Norwich 2-4, Newcastle 1-2, Exeter 1-2, Brighton 2-1 and Oxford 1-0, but maybe the 2-2 draw at Highbury against Arsenal in front of 55,000 fans was their biggest achievement.

Thursday 12th January 1956 - Eagles captain Bob Craig shakes hands with Arsenal skipper, Cliff Holton before the FA Cup third round replay at The Old Eyrrie Rooke's management reign came to an end and the 60's and 70's saw a string of managers including Barry Fry in 1977 who was followed by Trevor Gould. The last match for the Eagles at its home in Queens Park was in 1982, when the grounds leaseholders reserved their right to terminate their contract. After 74 years, Bedford's football team was no more. Bedford Town supporters have always been a determined bunch, and on 5th May 1989 some of them met with the aim of starting a campaign to reform the club. That campaign was so successful that they soon got council permission to play on a public pitch in Queens Park, finishing fourth in the first reformed season in the South Midlands League. Runaway success in the 1992/3 season under Terry King and Tony Sullivan saw them needing their own ground to progress.

The council decided that the most appropriate location for the club was at a former tree nursery at Meadow Lane in Cardington. With financial support from the council and hard work by supporters the ground was ready for its first match in front of a bumper crowd of 3,000 at the New Eyrrie when Peterborough United came to town.

The Eagles in their new home started life in the SML Premier Division and remained top all season, meaning more work at the ground was needed. Two more successive promotions followed before the club hit a stumbling block and risked relegation. The decision was made to bring Mick Foster in as manager from Buckingham Town, who brought several of his players with him, rescuing the season where they finished in eighth in the end. 97/98 was Foster's best season, narrowly missing out on promotion and winning the Vandenel Cup and the Beds Premier Cup.

Former players Jason Reed and Tony Luff took over as joint managers in 1998/99, having a good run in the FA Trophy, finally losing to the eventual winners Tiverton Town in the fifth round in front of a bumper crowd of 1,566 at the New Eyrrie.

Roger Ashby arrived the following season, with another strong cup run, this time losing out to Conference side Yeovil Town in the fourth round of the FA Trophy in front of 2,010. The change of millennium also saw changes for the Eagles as they became a Private Limited Company, owned by David Howells. A generally poor season but a great run in the FA Cup saw Match of the Day cameras arrive at the Eyrrie as a bumper crowd enjoyed our 0-0 draw against then Division 2 Peterborough United, the replay at London Road saw Bedford miss out in a 2-1 score line.

Bedford Town vs. Peterborough United - Saturday 17th November 2001 (FA Cup First Round)

Ashby's departure saw the arrival of former Northern Ireland international and Northampton Town Manager Kevin Wilson, results improved with him, but he soon departed to Aylesbury United. Dave Randall was next to take charge, but a poor run of results saw him replaced by Nick Platnauer.

Platnauer's first season in charge saw the team just miss out on promotion, but his second in 2005/06 saw the club move into its new facilities at the beginning of the season with a new function room and football facilities up to National Conference standard. The club were consistent throughout the season and earned a Playoff final spot at Chippenham. The Eagles had their day with a magnificent 3-2 win, the winning goal coming from a wonder strike by Tom Bonner two minutes from time. The Eagles now facing a new challenge in Nationwide South, the highest standard the club have played in since re-formation in 1990.

The Eagles found life hard in the Conference South and in February 2007, Platnauer resigned, being replaced by Stuart Bimson. Results improved, but they were not enough to prevent relegation, and Bedford's short foray into Conference football was over.

Things got worse the following season, with a second relegation only avoided by the financial problems of other teams. Lee Howarth took over in the 2008/09 season, but struggled to find form, being replaced the following season by former Reading Captain and Welsh International Ady Williams. Survival in the division came in the last game of the season, where a 2-0 win over Tiverton saw survival by a point. The following season saw assistant manager Ady Hall promoted to the top job, but he struggled to find form and Nick Platnauer returned to the club as his assistant before taking the helm again.

Platnauer's departure in 2013, saw a string of other manager appointments in the following years. Lee Barman from Cranfield United, former player Danny Nicholls, and Wellingborough Manager Craig Adams, who was in charge as the Eagles were relegated to Southern League Division One.

Jon Taylor took over in 2015/16 and his first full season in charge the following year saw a mid-table finish.

The 2017/18 season saw one of the club's most significant moments, when in February 2018 the club was brought by a local consortium headed by David and Jon Taylor, while on the pitch the team missed out on playoffs, finishing once in 8th place. Rebuilding, of the club and the team followed during the Summer with several former league players joining. The team enjoyed a fantastic run in both the FA Cup and Trophy in 2018/19, but that affected results in the League, although they did make the playoffs, losing out to Corby Town.

On 13th October 2019 the passing of owner David Taylor, saw his son and Eagles Manager Jon become club Director. With Jon moving upstairs Assistant Manager Nathan Abbey stepped up as Manager, winning his first match, but losing the next seven in nine, eventually being replaced by former player Mark Duckett. The season was declared null and void due to Covid-19, and work began preparing for the resumption of football in September 2020. An early exit in the FA Cup and defeat in the first League match last season saw Duckett depart, to be replaced by current manager Gary Setchell. Setchell and his assistant Darren Edey started their tenure well last season, remaining undefeated until the season was eventually curtailed once again.

Bedford Town FC

The Bulls are back at home on Tuesday night as they host Bedford Town.

Hereford returned to winning ways on Saturday with a 2-0 victory at home to Alfreton Town courtesy of an Andy Williams brace, something that they will be looking to build on.

"I thought we passed the ball really well, which we have lacked recently, but the overall performance was brilliant as well," said Paul Caddis.

Another player who impressed against the Derbyshire side was debutant Michael Parker, who arrived on loan from West Brom during the week.

"Michael was a catalyst for our performance, I thought it was an excellent debut; he's a big lad, quick, and left-footed, which gives us a balance," stated Caddis.

The Bulls go into the game on Tuesday in 18th place on six points with two wins and four losses.

Bedford have had a slow start to their first season in the National League North as they have picked up one win, one draw, and four losses, which sees them sitting in 21st on four points.

The Eagles' only win of the season so far came at home to AFC Telford, beating them 3-1.

Their most recent result was a 1-0 loss away to AFC Fylde, which made it three losses in a row.

Lee Bircham's side were promoted from the Southern League Premier Division Central by winning the title, and this will be their first season at this level since 2007.

Hereford fans will be hoping to see their side record back-to-back wins for the first time this season.

Team News

Gus Mafuta remains sidelined through injury, he has been for a scan, and the club is awaiting the results to find out the severity.

Madou Cisse is also to have a scan at his parent club, Notts County.

Remaye Campbell failed a fitness test before the Alfreton game, but he did make the bench.

WELCOME

TO SUPPORTERS OF BEDFORD TOWN

A warm welcome to supporters of Bedford Town today whom we meet again after some years. We hope you've had a good journey.

This league encounter stirs memories for senior supporters of when our two Southern League sides met regularly over many years. We've found a 1945 programme proudly covering The Eagles v Hereford United, that's how far we both go back together!

Our 'Memory Match' is the FA Cup Third Round Proper in January 1966.

In the Second Round the Eagles had disposed of Brighton & Hove Albion and the Bulls had beaten Millwall.

Younger fans will be amused when we tell them that our PA announcer said

"We'll be going to the Eyrie where they chant: 'Eagles! Eagles!' and he taught Hereford fans to chant 'United! United!'"

There were even billboards around the ground with 'U-NI-TED!' on them.

An Historic Moment for Football

The Football Governance Bill passed into law by Royal Assent on 21st July 2025. Richard Tomkins, FSA National Council rep (and HUST chair), reviews how it's got here.

In 2021 over 130 supporter groups in the Football Supporters' Association presented evidence to the Fan Led Review of Football Governance (chaired by Tracey Crouch MP). HUST was one of those groups. I was impressed with Tracey Crouch's grasp of recent football club catastrophes, including our own at Edgar Street, and she galvanised that Committee to drive the production of the first-cut Football Governance Bill.

More than 200 FSA-supporter groups (which included HUST and the London Bulls) signed an open letter to the party leaders calling on them to include the Football Governance Bill in their manifestos for the 2024 General Election, and work with the FSA in the new Parliament.

The key aim is to introduce an Independent Football Regulator and will only apply to the top 5 tiers of English Football – Premier League down to National League (Premier Division). National North & South are outside the boundary, but clearly any prospective club out for promotion needs to be prepared.

The Regulator aims to:

- Protect and promote the financial soundness of clubs
- Protect and promote the financial resilience of football
- Safeguard the heritage of football
- Ensure co-operation between clubs, owners, competitions, players and fans.
- More closely scrutinise the appointment of Owners & Directors.
- Promote the Engagement of supporters.

FSA CEO, Kevin Miles, says "This is an historic moment for football in this country, and we are very proud that the FSA was at the heart of change, helping to bring in laws which can help protect the clubs we love from the worst excesses of owners throughout the professional game.

Ultimately with the home advantage and on a snow-covered pitch (remember before 'Global Warming') the Eagles won 2-1 and went on to a good Fourth Round payday by drawing Everton at home, bowing out 3-0 but it was quite an occasion.
