WELCOME TO STEBONHEATH PARK

A warm welcome to everyone joining us at Stebonheath Park for today's game against Caernarfon Town Football Club. It's great to see another strong turnout, and we appreciate you making the effort to be here this afternoon.

I want to take a moment, as always, to acknowledge our supporters. Home or away, you continue to follow the club in numbers, and it's something we don't take for granted. Over the course of a long season, your consistency makes a real difference. The players and staff feel that backing, and the club as a whole benefits from having supporters who remain committed through the busy periods and the difficult patches.

I also want to extend my thanks to Jamie Edwards for stepping in to help with our social media recently. The workload in this area has increased significantly, and it has become too much for one or two people to manage alongside full-time jobs and other responsibilities within the club. If we're going to maintain the standard that's been set, we will need additional help.

If anyone has an interest in volunteering, or even contributing a small amount of time on a regular basis, please get in touch. It would be a shame to see the progress we've made across the league slip away simply because we don't have enough hands to keep things moving.

Today's match is an important one for us, and having your support from the stands is a big part of what makes Stebonheath a difficult place for opposition teams. We hope you enjoy the afternoon and get behind the lads throughout the game. With your backing, we'll be doing everything we can to come away with the three points.
Thank you again for your support.

CAERNARFON TOWN

HISTORY

Caernarfon Town Football Club, affectionately known as The Canaries, are one of the most iconic and passionately supported sides in Welsh football. Based at The Oval, just a short distance from the town's historic castle, the club's story is steeped in community pride, resilience, and a deep-rooted love of the game that stretches back well over a century.

Football in Caernarfon dates back to the late 19th century, with the original Caernarfon FC formed in 1876, making it one of the earliest clubs in Wales. The current club was established in 1937, carrying forward that proud local tradition after a series of earlier teams came and went. From its early years, Caernarfon Town became known for its loyal fan base and its ability to produce spirited, competitive sides despite limited resources.

The club joined the Welsh League (North) in the post-war years, gradually building its reputation as a force in North Wales football. Success in regional competitions led to a significant milestone in 1979, when Caernarfon Town were elected to the Northern Premier League, allowing them to compete in the English pyramid system. This ambitious move reflected the club's growing stature and willingness to challenge itself beyond Welsh competition.

The 1980s brought some of the most memorable moments in the club's history. Under the management of John King, The Canaries enjoyed a superb run in the 1986–87 FA Cup, famously reaching the Third Round Proper — the furthest a North Wales club has ever gone in the competition. After defeating Stockport County and York City, they faced Barnsley at The Oval in front of a packed crowd, earning a 1–1 draw before bowing out 3–1 in the replay at Oakwell. That cup adventure remains one of the defining chapters in the club's story.

By the early 1990s, Caernarfon had returned to the Welsh system, joining the newly established League of Wales in its inaugural 1992–93 season. Despite fluctuating fortunes, the club remained one of the best-supported teams in the country, known for the colour and noise their fans bring wherever they go.

After a spell in the lower leagues during the 2000s, Caernarfon Town began a remarkable resurgence under manager Iwan Williams in the mid-2010s. The club won promotion from the Welsh Alliance League in 2013, followed by the Huws Gray Cymru Alliance title in 2018, returning to the Cymru Premier for the 2018–19 season. Their homecoming to the top flight was met with huge local support, restoring The Oval's reputation as one of the most atmospheric grounds in Welsh football.

Since their return, The Canaries have consistently held their own in the Cymru Premier, securing top-six finishes and regular appearances in European play-off positions. In 2022–23, the club made further history by qualifying for the European play-offs and, in 2023–24, reaching the Welsh Cup final for the first time in nearly four decades — a testament to the club's growth and ambition.

Off the pitch, Caernarfon Town remain proudly community-focused. Their Canaries in the Community programme has become a model for engagement, providing opportunities for local youngsters and promoting football participation across the region. The club's connection with its supporters — the famed "Cofi Army" — is one of the strongest in Welsh football, giving The Oval a unique atmosphere on matchdays that visiting teams rarely forget.

From humble beginnings on local pitches to memorable FA Cup runs, league titles, and a return to the Cymru Premier elite, Caernarfon Town's journey is one of perseverance, pride, and passion. Rooted in its community but unafraid of ambition, The Canaries continue to fly high — proudly carrying the name of Caernarfon across Wales and beyond.

ADAM DAVIES

ATTACKER | 29 YEARS OLD | #9

Adan Davies has been in strong form this season, offering a consistent goal threat from midfield. With 10 goals and 5 assists in league play so far, he's proven himself to be one of the Cofis' most reliable outlets in the final third.

Earlier in the campaign, he grabbed the headlines with a well-taken hat-trick against Llanelli—a reminder of just how dangerous he can be when given time and space. But beyond the numbers, Davies brings drive and composure in key areas of the pitch. He times his runs well, strikes a clean ball, and links up smartly with those around him.

At 29, he's playing with confidence and clarity, contributing regularly and doing the simple things well—traits any side would value.

Keep an eye on Adan Davies this afternoon—busy, effective, and always a threat when Caernarfon go forward.

(Pic by Sam Eaden/FAW)

SION BRADLEY

ATTACKER | 27 YEARS OLD | #19

Back on loan from TNS, Sion Bradley returns to familiar surroundings—and his impact has been immediate. A fan favourite in his first spell with the Cofis, he brings directness, pace, and real quality in the final third.

Bradley's ability to beat a man and deliver from wide areas makes him a constant threat. He's sharp in one-v-one situations, times his runs well, and has the eye for a final pass that opens up defences. With the ball at his feet, there's always a sense something might happen—and his return has brought fresh energy to Caernarfon's attack.

Familiar with the club, the fans, and the system, Bradley is already showing signs of hitting top form again. Expect him to play a big role in the Cofis' push this season.

Watch out for Sion Bradley this afternoon—back in yellow and green, and looking hungry.

CONOR ROBERTS

GOALKEEPER | 32 YEARS OLD | #1

One of the most iconic keepers in the Welsh leagues, Conor Roberts remains a vital part of Caernarfon's spine. With over a decade of top-flight experience—including spells with Bangor City, and The New Saints—he brings calm, leadership, and big-game pedigree between the posts.

Roberts is an outstanding shot-stopper with sharp reflexes and a commanding presence in the box. He organises his defence well, stays vocal throughout, and comes up with crucial saves when the pressure is on. Whether it's diving low to his left or tipping over the bar at full stretch, he has a knack for producing the goods when it matters most.

Trusted by teammates and admired by fans across the league, Roberts gives Caernarfon confidence from the back.

Watch out for Conor Roberts this afternoon—an experienced keeper who always steps up on the big occasions.

(Pic by Nik Mesney/FAW)

RYAN SEARS

DEFENDER | 26 YEARS OLD | #27

Ryan Sears is one of the more experienced heads in this Caernarfon squad, bringing a solid Football League background and plenty of defensive know-how to the back line. Previously with Shrewsbury Town and Grimsby, Sears arrived at The Oval with a reputation for being reliable, aggressive, and difficult to beat in one-v-one situations.

Playing primarily at right-back, he's strong in the challenge, good in recovery, and sharp when stepping out to press. He doesn't try to overplay—his game is about being disciplined, winning battles, and keeping things tight. But he's no stranger to getting forward either, offering support down the flank when the chance is on.

At 26, he brings both maturity and bite to the side—experienced, battle-tested, and fully committed to the cause.

Watch out for Ryan Sears this afternoon—hard-working, no-nonsense, and part of a back line that doesn't give much away.

CATCHING UP WITH LEE JOHN

LLANELLI TOWN FIRST TEAMMANAGER

Good afternoon everyone and welcome to Stebonheath.

Today we entertain a solid and experienced Caernarfon team who've been very consistent and had numerous European qualifications over recent years. They've also recruited heavily this season with the aspiration I'm sure of challenging TNS, Penybont & CQN.

The last few weeks our own performances have been very good but we keep falling short in both boxes, not scoring enough and conceding avoidable goals. The players on the pitch have got to start taking more responsibility.

We feel really close to turning things around, there's a young squad in that changing room, yes we've lost experienced players to injury which hasn't helped but there is a plan to recruit what we need in January, we just need to stay within touching distance of the teams above us.

The club have put together a 5 year strategy which is very exciting, there's no doubt about the ambitions long term and we have so much potential with this young squad if we are patient.

Squad Update

Theo Wharton has torn his MCL and will hopefully be back in the New Year, which is good news for us as we thought it could've been a longer recovery, we know how important he can be.

Tristan Jenkins, one of our stand out performers last week is unfortunately doubtful for today after twisting and straining his ankle ligaments during the game, we don't think it'll be too long before he's back on the field.

Harrison Bright returns from suspension today, Brad Gibbings is home from holiday and we are hopeful that Danny Williams and Jamie Baker are feeling well enough to be in the squad after being under the weather.

Finally, I hope you enjoy the game today and the boys can reward you with some valuable points on the board. We are more than capable if we perform to the standards that we did against Haverfordwest.

All the best

LAST TIME OUT

Colwyn Bay 3 - 1 Llanelli Town
JD Cymru Premier Matchday 16

Llanelli Town left North Wales empty-handed after a battling performance against Colwyn Bay, falling to a 3-1 defeat despite taking an early lead.

The hosts started strongly and put Llanelli under pressure from the opening minutes, forcing Alex Pennock into several early saves. Colwyn Bay created a number of half-chances, but Pennock dealt well with the attempts that came his way, including a couple of headers straight at him. Llanelli had to weather a period where Bay dominated the ball, but they continued to break forward with purpose.

A sharp turnover in midfield from Joe Hopkins allowed Tristan Jenkins to slide a pass into Ethan Cann, whose deflected strike was saved low by the goalkeeper. That spell of play lifted Llanelli, and soon after they took the lead. On 31 minutes, Tristan Jenkins picked up possession outside the box and struck a composed low finish into the bottom corner, giving the Reds a 1-0 advantage and rewarding their determination.

Colwyn Bay responded swiftly. Jordan Davies brought the game back level with a well-taken finish, and shortly before half time the hosts edged ahead when Louis Robles converted from close range to make it 2–1. The home crowd — 792 strong and in full voice — erupted as the match swung in their favour.

The second half was competitive, with both sides pushing for the next goal. Llanelli worked hard defensively and continued to press when opportunities arose, but the key moment came when a long free-kick was delivered into the Llanelli half. Pennock stepped out to punch it clear, but the ball fell straight to a Colwyn Bay player, who hit a looping half-volley that bounced into the net to extend the lead to 3–1.

Llanelli pushed late on, forcing Colwyn Bay back and creating pressure from corners, but they couldn't find the goal needed to set up a tense finish. Bay also had further opportunities, including a late header over the bar, but the score remained unchanged.

Despite the defeat, the Reds showed good moments, competed well, and stayed in the game until the final stages — but Colwyn Bay's clinical finishing and the intensity of the home atmosphere proved decisive.

CATCHING UP WITH KATE MCAULEY

Since the last programme, it's been a chaotic few weeks — but plenty of positives to take from it all!

For the U19s, it's been a real mixed bag of results. We started with a disappointing loss away to Aberystwyth, before facing Carmarthen in a very close game where both sides went down to ten players. There were chances at both ends, but it was Carmarthen who managed to take all three points on the day.

This was followed by a very strong performance away to Cardiff City, where we kept the score to 3–0 and protected our goal difference well. Tuesday night's win over Swansea U19s was particularly pleasing — the girls are listening, taking on instructions, and working incredibly hard. All in all, I'm very proud of the 19s; it's shaping up to be a very competitive squad.

After a tough month where numbers were low, it's great to have players returning and depth back in the squad. Having options on match day makes such a difference! A win against Cascade would put us in a great position heading into a challenging run before Christmas, which includes fixtures against Briton Ferry and Pontypridd.

As for the Seniors, it feels like we haven't had a week off in forever — but we're thriving on the consistency! The regular games are helping us build momentum, and things are really starting to gel among the new squad.

A great result against Ammanford saw us progress to the next round of the WWFA Cup, and while it was frustrating to let a strong start slip against Taffs Well, a point is still progress compared to this time last season — a reminder of just how tight this league is.

Against Pontypridd, the team showed real heart. It was a valiant effort versus a Premier side, and although the scoreline didn't go our way, it was a huge improvement from last season's meeting. Ponty didn't deserve the win, but one converted chance from them late on saw us bow out of the Adran Trophy.

Next up, we face top-of-the-table Cardiff Met on Sunday. They're undefeated, so it'll be a tough test — but as always, we go to compete, and I'll be happy if we can come away with something from the game!

Finally, I'd like to say a huge thank you to the Supporters Club, who work so hard, voluntarily, to ensure our games go ahead and that match days at Steboneath run smoothly — especially Tuesday against Swansea! From setting up, forking the pitch, sweeping, manning the gate, cooking, and tidying up afterwards — they really do deserve recognition. The support they give to the women's section is truly appreciated.

Once again thank you to our mascots & supporters who have been there over the last few weeks! Makes a huge difference on match days to the girls!

YMLAEN: SETTING THE REDS FUTURE IN MOTION

On Monday 3rd November, Llanelli Town AFC welcomed a packed room to the New Thomas Arms Hotel for the official presentation of the club's 2025–2030 Five-Year Strategy, delivered in partnership with the Football Association of Wales. The event formed part of a wider FAW initiative requiring all 12 clubs — including Aberystwyth Town and Newtown, recently relegated from the top flight — to host their own public presentation outlining long-term sustainability plans, future objectives and community-focused ambitions.

The purpose of this national programme is to ensure clubs across Wales are planning responsibly for their future: strengthening pathways, improving infrastructure, building deeper community ties and operating sustainably both on and off the pitch. By setting out clear, measurable and forward-thinking objectives, clubs are better equipped to grow in a stable and progressive manner.

Llanelli Town's event, held in front of FAW CEO Noel Mooney, FAW representatives Jack Sharp and Joseph Donkor, members of Llanelli Town Council, the Mayor of Llanelli Andrew Bragoli, Council Leader David Darkin, and representatives from the Carmarthenshire League (CAFL), showcased the club's vision for a stronger, more community-driven future. The evening also saw a strong turnout from club members, supporters and volunteers, with Sgorio also present to capture the occasion.

The presentation was led by Colin Staples, who introduced the club's all-new Mission Statement, Vision and Values, Club Philosophy and the shared FAW-aligned objectives that will guide the next phase of the club's journey. A lively Q&A followed, featuring Lee John, Katie McAuley, Terry Boyle, Neil O'Brien, Noel Mooney, Joseph Donkor and Colin himself, offering those present the chance to hear first-hand the goals, challenges and ambitions that lie ahead.

A central theme of the night was the club's commitment to strengthening its relationship with the local area — deepening community engagement, widening opportunities, and ensuring the club remains a positive and accessible hub for the town. The strategy places significant emphasis on responsible growth, youth development, inclusivity, and building a long-term model that supports stability, progress and pride in representing Llanelli.

The club extended its thanks to everyone who attended and gave a special mention to host Gabriella Jukes for guiding the evening.

As Llanelli Town AFC now begins the next chapter of its journey, guided by the theme "My Town is Your Town is Our Town" and the badge motto Ymlaen (Onwards/Forwards), the club looks ahead with confidence, ambition and unity.

Anyone who was unable to attend the event but would like to learn more about the 2025–2030 Strategy is encouraged to reach out to the club — we'd be delighted to share the vision and continue the conversation.
