Welcome

Hi all, welcome back for the first game of the new season.

For us, it feels like the seasons all sort of roll into one, as the work never stops. You'll notice the brilliant work done around the ground by the volunteers and our outstanding groundsman, Josh Staunton. Meanwhile, we've been working closely with Andy Rossiter to secure our new signings and retain the core of our squad over the summer and moving into this season.

We are pleased with our recruitment over the summer. We managed to obtain a number of our key targets and securing them so early on has helped us to forge the squad together almost from day one of preseason, which we hope will be an advantage for us.

Preseason has been successful. In terms of results, we didn't lose a game, albeit a number of our fixtures were against lower league opposition. However, a number of our performances stood out, most notably against Bournemouth and Salisbury. We show good intensity, organisation and creativity during the various tests we've had over preseason and in the main, the squad has managed to pull through injury free. Our skipper will be out for a period of time while he recovers from a groin injury, but other than a few bumps and bruises, we are in good condition moving into today's game and beyond. We look forward to having Shaquille and Billy back for the Sholing fixture after suspensions they picked up at the end of last season.

Thank you to those who attended the fan's forum recently, it was great to meet you, and we appreciate the questions posed to us. Hopefully, you are excited for the season ahead, and we hope to give you all an entertaining year of football!

Up the Dolphins!

The Chairman

Where on earth do I start with these first notes of another new season?? Quite frankly I think I could fill the entire programme if I gave appropriate space to everything that has happened since the final game of last season. First off, I guess is to extend a very warm welcome to the players, officials and supporters of Hanwell Town Football Club, our opponents today in this opening fixture of the 2025/2026 Southern Premier League South campaign. Hanwell always provide strong opposition and in addition to being a good footballing outfit are also among the friendliest, most hospitable Clubs that it is our pleasure to compete with and I do hope that our own hospitality off the pitch of course can match up to theirs this afternoon.

To get back then to the huge amount of material available to me in terms of my thoughts today-much of which may well have to wait until future editions, It is probably best that I start with the playing side as that will of course be of most interest to the Poole fans reading these notes.

Joe and Pat have made a huge impact since they first joined us half way through last season. The progress that started from day one has continued on a steep upward trajectory ever since. The way we finished last season saw Tatnam getting back to becoming the fortress that we have got so used to over the years here and that had its knock on effect in terms of increasing attendances and raising the spirit and enthusiasm among our loyal fanbase. The recruitment during the Summer will prove I have no doubt to have been spot on with so much ability among the group and so many goalscorers to provide a threat right across the pitch. The fact that that recruitment was tied up so early following the end of last season due not only to the efforts of Joe and Pat but also to the involvement and financial input from Andy Rossiter has given so much more time for the lads to gel together not just as footballers but just as importantly as team mates since make no mistake if you have a happy dressing room to go alongside the quality of the group then then that is a formidable formula.

The pre-season performances without exception have been full of promise and full of entertaining football and as alluded to earlier full of goals throughout the squad. Last weekend's superb display against a powerful Salisbury outfit was exactly the type of final challenge that the boys needed before the real thing gets underway this afternoon.

All the new signings have settled in well both on and off the field and all will quickly become firm Poole Town favourites. I hope the lads will excuse me for singling out just one of those new acquisitions when I welcome back Tyrell Sampson to the Club. "Tiz" was an outstanding youngster with us a few years back and scored goals for fun for our u18s and the reserves. He left us to get more pitch time and has continued his education to good effect in the Wessex League, continuing to score prolifically season after season. I have followed his career closely since he left us and am just so delighted that he has returned. His goals and general performances during the recent friendlies augur well for a successful second stint with the Club which will hopefully continue for some years to come.

In closing these first notes of 25/26 I would like to thank so much our front of shirt sponsors Unique for their continued support and to welcome their Bradley Williams to the board of directors. Brad has had huge impact already—his financial support has enabled us to retain the services of our magnificent Commercial Manager Ben Edgell on a full time basis and the huge new Screen at the North end coupled with the new electronic advertising boards across the front of the main stand are prominent signs of the progress we are making as a result of their efforts—all part of building the Club towards bigger and better things.

Enjoy the game and don't forget the 50:50 tickets

What a feeling this is then!!! Season 25/26, let the rollercoaster begin.

I feel since last season finishing, the club has continued to improve, on and off the field. The recruitment was very good so hats off to those involved in getting it all done. We managed to get some fantastic new additions, along with nailing down the core of our group that finished last season so well.

I feel pre season has gone as well as we could have hoped, always a few hurdles but we've had some solid performances and the new players are gelling well. Personally I'm trying to get myself back to 100%, I've had a hip issue for two seasons now playing at 80%, I'm doing what I can to have myself back to 100% asap, ready to lead the boys through what I hope will be a successful season.

Once again the league is going to be seriously competitive, quite a few teams have recruited well and will be looking to really kick on. It's vital we start well and gain some momentum early on. That starts by making Tatnam a fortress again and a tough place to come, as it was tail end of last season. That starts today.

I can't wait to hear Tatnam rocking again, I've missed that. Time for the best fans in the league to get back to full voice and go out and show exactly why we have the best fans in the league. You'll make a massive difference throughout the season and I know you'll be with us home and away.

VS

Poole Town v Hanwell Town

Rarely has the new season been more eagerly anticipated at The Black Gold as we prepare to kick off the 2025/26 campaign on Saturday at home to Hanwell Town.

We have lost Merthyr and AFC Totton, who were both promoted, as well as Winchester City, Swindon Supermarine, Frome Town and Marlow who were all relegated. This means that we welcome the following teams to the Southern League South Premier Division;

Farnham Town - Isthmian League South Central Champions
Uxbridge - Isthmian League South Central Runners Up (Play-off winners)
Yate Town - Southern League South Champions
Evesham United - Southern League South Runners Up (Play-off winners)
Berkhamsted - Southern League Central Division Runners Up (Play-off winners)
Weymouth - Relegated from National League South

Pat & Joe, with the help of Andy Rossiter and the board, moved very early in the close season to bring in the players that they feel will give us every opportunity to have a successful season. They have brought in some very high-profile players who, between them, have a great deal of experience of playing at this level and above. We have seen some competitive pre-season friendlies against some very good sides, cumulating in the excellent 2-2 draw with Salisbury last Saturday.

Speaking in mid-week Joe said how disappointed he is at losing skipper Jamie Whisker for a few more weeks, but apart from one or two knocks and bruises we should have a full squad to select from. He stressed how important it is to get off to a positive start as the games will come thick and fast, playing Saturday and Tuesday in many weeks in the early part of the campaign.

We know from last season that Hanwell Town will be a very well organised and physical team. We lost the home fixture 2-1 last November and drew 3-3 away in March.

The Geordies are managed by Chris Moore who has a wealth of experience in league and non-league football, he began his playing career at Uxbridge before moving onto Northwood. He then made a name for himself when he signed for Dagenham & Redbridge. He had a brief spell with Brentford before returning to the Daggers and helping them win promotion to the Football League. Chris took sole charge of the Club for the 2022/23 season. In his first season in sole charge, and Hanwell's first at Step 3, he guided the club to 50 points, 13 points clear of the bottom four, and a 14th placed finish. In their second season in the Southern League, they picked up 48 points, which was enough to survive on goal difference in 17th place.

Last season saw a great improvement with the club finishing in 8th place on 58 points. They won 8 games on the road taking 28 points away from the Oliver Connell & Sons Community Stadium.

The club captain is goalkeeper Sam Beasant who joined the club from Beaconsfield in October 2023. He won the Supporters' Player of the Year and the Southern League Goalkeeper of the Season in the 2023/24 season. His father, Dave, famously was the first goalkeeper to save a penalty in an FA Cup final, lifting the famous trophy with Wimbledon FC in 1988 and won two England caps in 1989.

There has been a lot of work going on at the ground since the end of the season so come along early to have a look at what has been achieved. Let's get behind the lads from the first whistle and get the season off to a great start. Enjoy the game.

Poole Town 2 - 2 Salisbury

Spalding (30')
Campbell (42')

Saturday 2 August 2025

Friendly at The Blackgold Stadium

Attendance: 484

Written by Connor Hannon

The Dolphins secured a 2-2 draw in their final pre-season match against Salisbury at Tatnam on Saturday afternoon.

Joe Lea and Pat Suraci's side came into the game in fine form having had a strong pre-season campaign but their biggest test yet was against National League South outfit Salisbury.

Injury doubts for Josh Staunton, Antonio Diaz and Jamie Whisker kept them out of the squad, but the Dolphins still set up with a strong starting eleven with the season getting underway in just under a weeks time.

The match got underway on a sunny afternoon at Tatnam with the visitors on top in the early stages.

Despite the Dolphins growing into the match and creating a number of chances themselves, it was Salisbury who struck first through Mike Atkinson as his long range effort beat the outstretched Adam Parkes in goal.

Ik Hill looked a bright spark in the first half for Poole, creating numerous openings down the left hand side, but were unable to find the back of the net as of yet.

Salisbury doubled their lead on the 25th minute as Charlie Davis was robbed on the edge of his own area and Noah Coppin casually placed the ball in the back of the net to give Salisbury a second.

Only five minutes later, Poole responded after great work down the flank from Ik Hill found Henry Spalding in space in the area who fired past the goalkeeper to get the Dolphins back in the game.

With Poole looking dangerous every time they ventured forward, a Charlie Davis free kick found the head of Kris Campbell who gracefully glanced home to draw the scores level again and go into the break at two a-piece.

The second half got underway in similar fashion with both sides showing high intensity and promise going forward but neither side were able to find a third in this one.

Selim Saied, Tyrrell Sampson and Pietro Almeida all entered the fray as the second half progressed.

As the half progressed, Salisbury were on top for the latter stages but a valiant defensive effort from Poole ensured they remained resolute and were able to hold onto a draw in the end as the referee's whistle brought proceedings to an end at 2-2.

A comprehensive performance from Lea and Suraci's side and certainly a promising one with the opening fixture right around the corner.

Uncertainties affect every aspect of life: football and other sports are a high-profile example, but it's true of almost everything else too. There are small margins between success and failure in all kinds of endeavour. I expect each of us can think of personal examples: things that worked out well which initially seemed unpromising, and things that fell apart which earlier looked good in prospect.

Of the forty-or-so human authors of books which made it into the Bible, I find one of the most helpful is the apostle Paul. He had great successes in establishing churches around the

Welcome to the first competitive game of the new season and to all our visitors from Hanwell today – we wish you a safe journey home.

As we reach the beginning of the new season, anticipation and excitement are increasing. For every team in every league, supporters are debating the prospective impact of summer transfers, and hard work in pre-season is about to bear fruit in eastern Mediterranean, but also found himself on the wrong end of beatings, shipwrecks, riots and miscarriages of justice. Reflecting on some of this in one of his letters to churches, Paul wrote, "I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want." This 'secret' was not secret at all: it was the peace that came from having the presence and power of Jesus alongside him in all the ups and downs of life, and Paul committed his life to sharing this with anyone who would listen.

As you journey through the ups and downs of life, I hope you will know this peace too.

Poole Town FC Brand New U23's

Tuesday 5th August saw the first trial for our brand new U23 team. We had twenty two aspiring players being put through their paces by Head Coach – Juan Valverde, with some very good local talent on show.

Skipper Jamie Whisken kindly came to join in. He spoke to the group prior to starting to give them an insight of what it is like to play for Poole Town and what is expected. He also took the warmup to get the triallists off to a great start. The team has been placed in the Premier Division of the Hampshire Combination and Development Football League and face some very good established opposition. We are pleased to announce that our home games (usually on a Wednesday) will be played at Tatnam, so it will give extra football for our loyal fans to come and watch.

It is a great opportunity to cement the pathway between the youth teams of Poole Town FC Wessex and the First Team, which has been helped by many at the Club. In particular I would like to thank; John MacArthur, Lisa Cox, Matt Reeds and Dan Wilson for their combined efforts in all aspects of logistics, secretarial work, kits and more.

As some may recall, reserve teams and suchlike have been attempted before and have not been totally successful for many reasons. However, this time, we have a lot of great people involved. In particular, joint managers Pat and Joe, who have a solid history of working to develop and bring youth players through the ranks. They are supportive to the project and Juan is working closely with them to ensure the U23s replicate the style and ethos of the first team.

A special thanks is reserved for Richard Gale, who has been instrumental in arranging the finances to cover the venture for the season. Gale Homes and Investments has donated £10,000 to Poole Town FC Kids Initiative CIC who in turn have allocated this to go towards the running costs of the U23's. Here is to a fantastic season

Andy White
Chairman
(Poole Town FC Wessex)

Message from Juan

Originally from Alcalá de Henares, Spain, I spent 9 years at RSD Alcalá, where I was fortunate to learn from coaches connected to some of Madrid's top professional academies. In 2018, I moved to Bournemouth with the idea of learning English and returning home after two years... but football had other plans for me.

I founded FTY Academy, which now works in partnership with Poole Town FC Wessex, aiming to build a clear pathway from grassroots to senior football. With over 180 players from U8s to U14s, we apply a modern methodology that blends the strengths of British and Spanish football.

Being part of Poole Town FC U23s is a dream come true. This club has always caught my attention – it shares many values with the one I came from in Spain. Since day one, I've felt welcomed by everyone involved.

Special thanks to Andy White and Richard Gale for believing in me, to Pat and Joe for their incredible support with the U23s, and to the board and the fans for their commitment to pushing Poole Town forward.

Let's build something special.

Up the Dolph!

We also have a mission to promote to businesses that people with SEND make really good & loyal employees. We're based at Boscombe, Dorchester, Winton & Merley as well as further afield in Merseyside.

We are so pleased to be sponsors of Poole Town FC because the Club has offered to help work with our students, that attitude shouts loudly of the ethics and attitude of the organisation which very much echo our beliefs – so why wouldn't we want to get involved. We know that football (and any team sport) can give young people so much confidence & esteem, so it's a valuable partnership that I'm really excited to see develop over the long term. You'll probably gather that, from my name, I'm a bit of an Arsenal fan (maybe I shouldn't say that !?) but with the attitude of the people we've come across at Poole Town, you've got yourself another fan !

That's enough from me .

Have a great season !

Overview

The history of Hanwell Town needs to be understood in three distinct but nevertheless linked phases. The first was the original foundation of the Club as Hanwell FC which lasted from 1884-1912. The second was the re-founding and renaming of the Club as Hanwell Town in 1920, a short period which lasted seven years before the Club folded for a second time. Finally, the third phase of the Club's history was the re-establishment of Hanwell Town in 1947.

The first phase

In 1884 four young men: J.D. Brayne, J.R. Mathias, John Wark and Charles Richins founded Hanwell Football Club playing at Church Fields at a rent of £4 per year and using the Viaduct pub as its club house. The Club continued to grow and by 1892 was running three teams. In 1893, it moved its headquarters to the Royal Victoria pub. In 1897, the Club won its first trophy, the West Middlesex Cup, sensationally defeating Brentford 1-0 and in 1898 joined the London League.

Unfortunately, the Club led a hand to mouth existence. The reason for the Club's financial predicament went back to 1898 when it joined the London League which had begun two years earlier. The cost of travel proved prohibitive and the Club took what proved to be an ill-fated decision to resign from the league at the end of the season and join the newly created and local Middlesex League for season 1899-1900. The folly of that decision quickly became evident as that league lasted for only one year before disbanding.

Committee dithering meant that although the Club decided to re-apply for admission to the London league it missed the date for applications and was forced to play friendly fixtures. Indeed, it was to be two more years before it successfully re-joined the London League playing for three seasons from 1902-1905 when the Club joined the Great Western Suburban League. In 1908, Hanwell reached the final of the Middlesex Senior Cup but lost the final to Southall 1-0.

Despite being moderately successful and holding its own in the leagues, the Club's best achievement was its solitary Middlesex Cup final appearance. Caught in a footballing triangle of three local well-established and successful clubs (Brentford, Ealing and Southall) it failed to make a significant impact and attendances remained stubbornly low. The Club struggled on but beset by small crowds and high ground rents was always in a financially precarious position and in 1912 it folded.

The second phase

In 1920 the Club was reformed, this time taking the name of Hanwell Town. Local folklore and tradition maintain that it was founded by Geordies, many of whom were demobbed servicemen after the Great War. Many of them worked on major projects such as Sir Robert McAlpine's construction company building the Great Western Water Treatment works pipeline from Hammersmith to Isleworth. Unfortunately, the names of these playing pioneers have been lost as there are no surviving official club records from this period.

It was around this time that the Club began to play in the famous black and white stripes of Newcastle United. Once again, financial pressures and low attendances meant that the club was always operating on a shoestring and in 1927 it folded once again. Nevertheless, the link with West London was maintained and in the 1930s the Walker family from Gateshead was one of hundreds who came down from the Northeast to London in the 1936 depression looking for work. It was to be the family's eldest son Ron who went on to re-establish the Geordie heritage and transform the fortunes of the Club.

The third phase

During the Second World War, Walker served in the RAF. After demobilisation he joined Hanwell Town Sports & Social Club in 1948 and played for the first XI with his two brothers Raynor and Albert. It was the start of a 60 year love affair with the Club. Initially, the Club played in the Dauntless league. From 1949-1969 it played in the Harrow and District League. In 1969 the Club won election to the Middlesex League and played there until 1983 when it joined the London League playing there until 1987 when it joined the Spartan League.

The Club joined the Isthmian League in 1918 then in 2021 it won election to the Southern League Premier Division (South) which is Level 7 / Step 3 in the football pyramid. This is the highest standard of football that the club has ever achieved in its history.

Club honours include:

Spartan League Champions 1983-4, London Senior Cup Winners 1992-3 and again in 1993-4, Premier Division Cup Winners 2002-03, Premier Division Champions 2013-14, and most recently Middlesex Senior Cup Winners 2020-21.

No account of the history of the club would be complete without paying tribute to four other men who have been prominent in the history of the club:

- Bob Fisher the Club Chairman who has been involved with the club since 1955 and has been first XI captain, manager, Treasurer, Chairman and President in his long career;
- Phil Player who holds the record number of first XI appearances;
- Ray Duffy who as player and manager amassed 997 first XI games; and
- Dave Iddiols the current President who has been with the club for nearly 50 years.

With such a strong commitment to the local community, a first-class ground, a youth section that has over thirty teams and an ever increasing and fiercely loyal supporter base, the future of the Club is brighter than ever.
