MANAGER'S BLOG

SCOTT BARTLETT

Good afternoon, welcome to the Optima Stadium for today's game v Chesham. I'd like to personally welcome both James and Michael, who we have got to know well over the years.

We come into the game after a replay v Taunton in which we progressed in the FA Cup. I thought we were excellent in the replay in what was another special night under the lights. I thought we were very professional and had an outstanding work ethic, whilst maintaining that Taunton carried a threat throughout both games.

MANAGER'S BLOG

We have a lot of players displaying a good level of form, our front boys are all firing well, and scoring or assisting the team. Louis Britton has quite simply caught fire which is great to see.

Our paths have crossed a number of times with Chesham over recent times, I admire them and the job James and Michael are doing. They are always difficult opposition and Reuben Reid still maintains that our late equaliser away there a few seasons ago was the moment the players believed we would go on to win the Southern Premier Division.

Today is community day, our supporters have been fantastic, however to keep moving forward we really need the town to get behind the club and come out in their numbers.

I hope you enjoy the game.

THE BIG INTERVIEW

WITH DAN MARTIN

THE BIG INTERVIEW

Summer signing Dan Martin chatted to Rob Hammett about the start to his second spell with The Seagulls.

Dan joined Weston on a permanent deal in 2025, after a successful loan spell under Scott Bartlett back in 2019/20.

Hi Dan. Firstly, how is your injury and when do you hope to be back playing?

I'm not far off, I had a slight setback on Saturday doing a running session but it's healing up quickly. I expect to be back on the pitch soon.

THE BIG INTERVIEW

You're now in your second spell at the club, how do you feel about being back at the club on a more permanent basis?

Having had a difficult few years with injuries and health issues, I was buzzing to have the opportunity to come back. I loved my time here in 2019 so it was a no brainer to come back.

You've more than played your part in an extremely strong backline this season, what have you made of your performances so far?

I think to a man we've all had a really strong start to the season that's why we're so hard to beat. It's great to be in a team that has the mentality to go and win every game and keep clean sheets.

THE BIG INTERVIEW

The gaffer has been after you for some time. As a player, how does that make you feel knowing a manager is so keen to sign you?

My relationship with the gaffer has always been good. We've been in contact pretty much since the day I left. The style of football his teams play really suits me because he gives me the license to get forward. He was a big factor in wanting to return to the club.

Which game has been your favourite this season?

My favourite game so far this season has to be Dagenham. A really good team performance and I felt we were in control.

HEAD TO HEAD - CHESHAM UNITED

This afternoon's National League South fixture is the eighth time Weston and Chesham United have faced each other in a league game.

So far, Weston have won two of those games and Chesham have also won two. All three of the drawn games have finished 1-1.

The two victories came in October 2021, Max Harris's first-ever game for the club, and at The Meadow in August 2024 as Luke Coulson's brace of penalties earned Weston's first victory of the season.

HEAD TO HEAD - CHESHAM UNITED

There have also been two FA Trophy ties between The Seagulls and The Generals as both clubs have won their tie on away soil in this competition. Weston won 2-0 at The Meadow after a goal in each half from Danny Greenslade and Dayle Grubb in December 2017, before Chesham gained some revenge three years later with a 3-1 victory at the Optima, with the tie being played behind closed doors.

There have also been three FA Cup ties between the two clubs. The Third Qualifying Round tie in 2003 was also the first-ever game played behind the two sides. After a 1-1 draw at Woodspring Park (in what was Weston's final season at their former home) a replay was required at The Meadow. The Seagulls won 2-1 in Buckinghamshire, and this was the season that saw Weston eventually qualify for the Second Round proper and the game at Northampton Town, The Seagulls' best ever FA Cup campaign.

Chesham did, however, beat Weston in the Second Qualifying Round in the 2008/09 season by four goals to two, something of a shock at the time as The Generals were two leagues below Weston.

'THE GENERALS' - FOUR TO WATCH

Minhas is a proven goal-scorer at both Step 2 and Step 3, and joined Chesham from Slough Town in the summer of 2024. After scoring 17 times in his debut National League South season with Slough, Minhas went on to score 15 times last season, finishing as Chesham's top goalscorer as they finished 13th in National League South.

Before his time at Step 2, Nathan notched 52 league goals over two seasons with Beaconsfield Town at Step 3. Prior to his spell at Holloways Park, Nathan was with Maidenhead United, before moving to Ascot United in 2018, where his performances earned him a move to Billericay Town in National League South, before spells at Bracknell Town and Hampton & Richmond Borough. Nathan also represented Punjab in the 2018 CONIFA World Cup, scoring three times as the team finished fifth overall.

Mitchell Weiss (right)

Joined in 2024 from fellow National League South side St Albans City, where he had become a fans' favourite after spending four seasons at Clarence Park, finishing his spell there scoring 14 goals in 2023/24 to go with 12 assists. A hard-working striker, Mitchell won Manager's Player of the Season in his debut year at the club for his consistent performances.

Prior to his time with the Saints, Mitchell played for Kings Langley, scoring 41 goals in a season as well as spells with Hemel Hempstead and Hayes & Yeading, before signing for the Saints in August 2020. He went onto make 159 appearances at Clarence Park, making the FA Cup First Round and National League South play-off final in his time in Hertfordshire.

Alex Babos (right)

A hard-working and creative central midfielder who joined the club in June 2025, having been a regular in the Hereford team last season. Babos provided 22 goal contributions in his first season at Edgar Street.

Alex started his career at Derby County and was loaned out to Spanish outfit, Real Union, as well as FC United of Manchester, whilst also getting regular game-time for The Rams' U23 team. The Wales U21 International then went on to serve Alfreton, King's Lynn and Banbury.

Karl Oliyide (left)

A powerful and pacy forward, Karl joined the Generals from Hampton & Richmond ahead of 2019/20, quickly establishing himself as a key attacking outlet and was Chesham's top scorer in the 2022/23 season. He suffered a major achilles injury in pre-season of 2023/24 and unfortunately missed the majority of the title winning campaign.

Karl has also represented Hemel Hempstead, Enfield Town & Hendon. Karl began his career with Oxhey Jets, before a spell in the academy at Reading where he also had a short spell at Leiknir Reykjavik in Iceland.
