SCOTT ROGERS

MANAGER'S BLOG

Good evening to all visiting the Optima Stadium tonight under the lights, which will hopefully produce a game to match the quality of the playing surface Sam has prepared for us this evening.

I'd like to offer a big warm welcome to Scott Davies, Tony Fontenelle and their Slough Town side. We have had some really tough games against Slough in recent times and tonight will be no different. Scott and Tony are two of the league's really good guys, always honest, respectful and I'm sure one day they will manage in the Football League.

We come off a tough away fixture at Hampton & Richmond, where Emlyn Lewis marshalled the side superbly from the sweeper position, alongside Callum Wood and Jason Pope who were both outstanding.

MANAGER'S BLOG

It was great to see Dan Martin getting his first all important goal from a Sam Pearson cross, which I believe he deserved for his performances so far this season. Also, a special mention to Charlie Cummins and Max Harris, who had very solid games.

Three games in a week in this league is tough but we've set ourselves a little points target to hit, so fingers crossed we pick up another one or three tonight and keep the ball rolling.

With our squad a little light with players missing we really do need you to be our 12th man tonight, so please get behind the goal we're attacking, make some noise, sing some songs and suck the ball into the back of the net for us.

Scotty

VICE CHAIRMAN'S BLOG

WITH ED BLISS

As we move deeper into what's shaping up to be an exciting and memorable season at Weston-super-Mare AFC, I wanted to take a moment to reflect on some of the fantastic achievements across the club so far. Spoiler alert: there have been quite a few!

Let's start between the sticks. Huge congratulations to our goalkeeper, Max Harris, who has recently set a new club record for unbeaten games at the Optima Stadium. A remarkable milestone, and one that's as much about Max's brilliance as it is about the brick wall in front of him. Our defensive unit has been rock-solid—disciplined, organised, and showing the kind of commitment that makes opposition strikers question their life choices. Week after week, they've laid the foundations for our success, and it's paying off in style.

VICE CHAIRMAN'S BLOG

Speaking of records, we've also made club history in the FA Cup, reaching the First Round Proper for the second consecutive season—a first for Weston-super-Mare AFC. It's another huge achievement that underlines the steady progress we're making both on and off the pitch. These things don't happen by accident; they're born from graft, belief, and a few sleepless nights from the coaching staff!

Since stepping into the managerial role, Scott has settled in superbly. The fans have a strong relationship with Scott and have confidence in his ability to take the club forward. Alongside Assistant Manager Gary Warren, the pair have formed a strong partnership that's steering the club forward. Together, they're building something special—something that truly reflects the ambition and community spirit at the heart of Weston-super-Mare AFC.

The first team's resilience has been on full display, too. Another late winner at Hampton & Richmond last Saturday had fans checking their heart rates—but that's what makes it all so exciting. This team simply refuses to give up, and that belief in one another is what defines them.

Off the pitch, the success continues. We're now into our third consecutive year of record-breaking sponsorship and advertising figures, which is absolutely vital to the club's growth and future ambitions. A huge thank you to all our sponsors—your support and faith in the club's vision genuinely make everything possible. (And if you're reading this thinking about getting involved—well, there's never been a better time!)

There's still plenty of football to play, and we know there will be more challenges ahead— We'll keep our feet firmly on the ground and take each game as it comes.

Thank you, as always, to our supporters for your unwavering backing—it makes all the difference.

Up the Seagulls!

WITH SIMON PANES

We within the Academy Programme were delighted with the board's decision to appoint Scott Rogers as our first-team manager.

With Gary Warren as his Assistant and Adie Britton as Technical Director, this forms a formidable team. Just as importantly for all our Academy players, this announcement shows and will prove that our pathway into the first team becomes even more realistic. Scott has already spoken to me about boys within our programme and this was proved with three lads in the squad for last week's FA Cup tie, plus five Academy lads regularly training with the first team.

ACADEMY BLOG

In my role I am forever being asked and sometimes challenged by parents that we don't have a pathway, or they actually think there are better pathways elsewhere. My reply is always "show me a better pathway in the South West outside the professional game that gives you the facilities, education programme ,quality of coaches, games programme and access to a club at the sixth tier of English football?"

We talk a lot about development of players, but we as an Academy always look to development staff as well. If you look at this season for example, we have promoted both Craig Graham and Bridget Bolland into senior roles, plus Gary now taking the Assistant Manager role with the first team. Luke Coulson alongside his coaching role for us coaches at Bristol City, and now Ethan Reed has been given the opportunity to coach at Swindon Town, again while still remaining with us. This will not only enhance their careers, but we will benefit from sharing good practice and possibly give some of our boys the potential to trial for a Football League club.

That point does cause debate though, and all I can say is, if you are good enough you will be found. Other organisations highlight that they will get you trials for League clubs as part of their recruitment process. Please don't fall for that one, be patient and opportunities will come along if you are producing outstanding performances. Parents/guardians please take note!

Best wishes,

Simon

LAST TIME OUT

Weston face Slough Town in tonight's National League South clash here at the Optima Stadium, and will be looking to repeat last season's achievements where they picked up six points and a league double against the Berkshire side.

Coincidentally, both games were played in Tuesday night fixtures under the lights, as they are this season as well.

The first game between The Seagulls and The Rebels during the 2024/25 campaign came in early September here at the Optima. Weston had won their last four games in a row, but faced a tough test against Scott Davies' side, who had done the double over Weston in the 2023/24 season.

LAST TIME OUT

It was goalless at the interval, but Weston grabbed the first decisive goal of the night when Dylan Kadji played the ball wide to Luke Coulson. From the left touchline, Coulson's dangerous inswinging cross evaded absolutely everyone and ended up in the back of the net.

Weston were looking fairly comfortable but victory was guaranteed in second-half injury-time after Scott Bartlett's side caught Slough on the break, the ball eventually found its way to loan signing Dylan Morgan and he calmly slotted home for his second goal in two games.

The return fixture was played at Arbour Park in January. Weston made the journey along the M4 reeling from the 4-1 home defeat to Welling United three days earlier, but that loss was forgotten about after The Seagulls' 3-1 win in Berkshire after goals from Coulson, Emlyn Lewis and his namesake and compatriot, Morgan Lewis. Slavi Spasov, now with Southend United, had equalised for The Rebels.

THE REBELS - FOUR TO WATCH

Player-manager Scott Davies (left) became first team manager in November 2022 having taken on the role of caretaker manager the previous week, following the departure of Neil Baker and Jon Underwood. Davies began his career as a professional at Reading and enjoyed a successful loan spell at Aldershot Town, where he won promotion to League Two. He played around 100 games in the Football League for Aldershot, Wycombe Wanderers and Crawley Town amongst others, and went on to make well over 100 appearances in National League South for Wealdstone, Oxford City and Chelmsford City.

Tarik Gidaree (right) is an attacking full-back who joined the Rebels in May 2025. He joined Hendon in July 2024 after impressive pre-season performances. He started his career at AFC Bournemouth Under 18s, moving on to their Under 21s. He joined Harrow Borough in July 2023 following his release from Bournemouth but spent the latter part of 2023/24 playing for Lincoln Red Imps in Gibraltar. As a youth player, he also had spells with Norwich City and Tottenham Hotspur. With his strong footballing background, Tarik brings a wealth of talent and potential to Slough's team.

THE REBELS - FOUR TO WATCH

Slough signed striker Wiktor Makowski (left) in May 2025. Wiktor made his return to Arbour Park having spent the last two seasons at Flackwell Heath.

In the 2023/24 season, he won the Combined Counties Premier Division North with Flackwell, scoring 20 goals. In the 2024/25 season, he helped The Heathens to the Southern League Division One Central play-off final and the Berks & Bucks FA Senior Cup final, scoring 41 goals with 22 assists. Wiktor's goal-scoring prowess makes him a key addition to The Rebels' squad.

Forward Jared Myers (right) signed for Slough Town in July 2025. The 21-year-old winger, who can also play as a striker, joined the club from Isthmian League South Central club Bedfont Sports, where he scored 28 league goals last season. He helped the club win the Combined Counties League Premier Division North play-off final, resulting in promotion to Step 4. In total, Jared made 73 appearances for Bedfont, scoring 39 goals and registering 18 assists. Jared had been on trial with the Rebels in pre-season and impressed with his performances.
