MANAGER NOTES

JERMAIN DEFOE

Reflecting on the game against Morecambe, I was really pleased, not just with the three points, but with the overall performance. We trained sharply in the lead-up to the match, and I wanted that same intensity to carry into the game. The focus was on our principles, both in and out of possession, and I felt the players took everything on board and executed the game plan extremely well.

It's always satisfying as a manager when the work you put in on the training ground comes through on matchday. I thought everyone played their part, from the goalkeeper right through the team, and the substitutes once again made a positive impact when they came on. That collective contribution was really important.

I was also pleased with the attitude across the squad. I know it's not easy for those who aren't starting, but to see the players on the bench celebrating goals and supporting their teammates shows the togetherness we have. That spirit is vital as we head into the final games of the season.

Now the focus turns to the next match against Solihull Moors. There are three games left, and I've challenged the players to finish strongly, to try and remain unbeaten, and to lay down a marker for next season. Scoring five goals at the weekend was a real positive. I want the players to be ruthless in attack and to believe in how good they are. We worked on that belief in training, even in small-sided games, and I felt they showed that confidence out on the pitch.

Finally, I'd like to thank you supporters. Your energy and backing made a real difference, and it played a big part in creating a strong home atmosphere. That's exactly what we want, making our ground a difficult place for any opposition to come and play.

Woking 5-1 Morecambe
Enterprise National League
Laithwaite Community Stadium
11th April 2026

Jermain Defoe seized his first Woking win in style, as the Cards ran out 5-1 victors to confirm Morecambe's relegation to the National League North.

The early lead fell the way of the hosts, courtesy of Beautyman's tenth of the season. The captain saw his first effort blocked, but made no mistake with his second attempt, which flew in past Jamal Blackman to break the deadlock in the 12th minute. Moments later, Pennant almost doubled Woking's advantage, but his effort, struck back across goal, dragged wide.

Whilst the Cards continued to look the better side, the Shrimps had chances, most notably with two corners in quick succession. The first, delivered in the 22nd minute, was met by the fingertips of Jaaskelainen, with the following corner seeing a header directed onto the crossbar. Ward was next to go close, with his shot taking a deflection in the 32nd minute, with the effort from the resulting corner nestling on the roof of the net.

Woking continued in pursuit of a second, and it came from Drewe in the 37th minute, as his corner delivery looped directly into Morecambe's net. The Shrimps halved the deficit before the break, however, as Nolan forced home a 41st minute effort. Sanderson almost saw the Cards in at the half with a two goal cushion, but his injury time effort was blocked.

Half Time: Woking 2-1 Morecambe. Ward continued his influence in the early stages of the second half, firstly with a 55th minute volley struck over the bar, then with a break through on goal moments later, but he was halted by the offside flag.

With the wind in their favour, Morecambe had moments going forward, most notably in the 67th minute, with Jaaskelainen doing well to deny the equaliser. Moments later, a corner almost saw that leveller, with the effort striking the underside of the crossbar, but falling the wrong side of the line. Sanderson restored the Cards' two goal advantage in the 77th minute as he picked up the ball in midfield, rounded the recovering defender, and slotted home from the edge of the box.

Substitute Ashford made it four on 90 minutes, as he slotted his edge of the area effort into the far bottom corner. Sanderson's second came minutes later, as he lifted the ball over Blackman in the third minute of injury time, leaving Morecambe well beaten.

Woking: Jaaskelainen, Drewe, Richards, Okoli, Beautyman © (Taylor 82'), Ward (Ashford 82'), Akinola, S. Turner (Andrews 74'), Forster-Caskey (Gorman 74'), Pennant (Gbode 64'), Sanderson.

Unused Substitutes: Ross, Timmy.

THE SPIRIT OF 1958

The Cardinal Tales by Mark Doyle

SATURDAY 12 APRIL 1958
FA Amateur Cup Final, at Wembley Stadium

WOKING 3 ILFORD 0
Attendance: 71,000, Receipts - £25,619

TThis weekend sees the 68th anniversary of the Cards first visit to Wembley, the following is the match report from the Official FA Yearbook of 1958-59.

For the first time in five years this was to be an all-southern event. Woking's 3-0 win over Ilford ended the North's grip on the Cup, which had also lasted five years. Once again, the day proved sunny, but the flags fluttering around the stadium gave evidence of the strong easterly wind that was to blow down the pitch throughout the match. The wind, no doubt, was responsible for a large proportion of errors made, and both goalkeepers were troubled by lofted crosses from the wings, especially when defending the western goal.

In contrast to recent years, during which Bishop Auckland had become almost "Wembley residents", both teams were playing in their first Wembley Final. It was a first-ever Final appearance for Woking, whilst Ilford had not reached it since 1936. There was also promise of an even match, for while it was agreed that Woking had the stronger forward line, Ilford had proved themselves the possessors of one of the strongest defences in amateur football.

Woking had the advantage of the wind in the first half, and their attack, containing four English Internationals, got quickly into its stride. A header by Mortimore just over the bar inside the first two minutes gave warning of Woking's intentions, but Ilford were not dismayed and settled to the task of keeping the eager Woking forwards at bay.

Although much of the early play was in Woking's favour, Ilford were sufficiently on the offensive to show that the sides were employing different methods of attack. Woking made full use of their wing-men, whereas Ilford tried to force the Woking backs wide before hitting long balls up the middle for Taylor to chase. In the first quarter it did look though they might snatch a goal, and on several occasions it was only the cool work of Turner at centre-half that foiled them.

However, it was at the other end that most of the danger lay. Woking's forwards, spurred on by the deep-lying Hamm, drove again and again at the Ilford goal, and only desperate defensive work prevented the Surrey side from taking the lead. A free-kick from Hamm was turned over by Gibbins, goal-bound shots hit defenders, and a thirty-yard screamer from Hebdon was narrowly wide. At this time Ilford were not helped by indifferent handling by Gibbins, but Whittall, Cross and Dodkins took advantage of the tendency of the Woking forwards to over-elaborate.

After 38 minutes Woking finally found a way through. The luckless Gibbins failed to gather a high swirling centre from the left, and the ball ran loose to Hebdon, who calmly picked his spot and shot high into the net. Woking had little difficulty maintaining their lead until half-time, and few were prepared for the rally Ilford staged in the first 30 minutes of the second half. Aided by the wind and by an ankle injury to Woking's right-winger, Littlejohn, Ilford gained a hold on the Woking attack and laid siege to the goal.

Winch worked tirelessly to keep his forwards going, and Durston made moves which looked as though they might save the situation. The Woking defence, labelled suspect before the match, showed its true colours during this 30-minute trial. Ellerby, Parsons and Turner seemed to be everywhere, supported by Collingwood and Clacey.

Yet even they could not prevent several near things, such as when Durston was clean through only to miss, or when Castle hit the bar with an in-swinging corner kick. A goal to Ilford, one felt, and they would go on and take the match.

Then, suddenly, against the run of play and with only 10 minutes to go, came the deathblow. A quick move up field left Stratton racing through clear of all opposition. Gibbins came out to meet him, but could only just get to the winger's shot, which spun past him and into the goal.

Whittall, dashing back to clear, got there just too late and Woking were two up. The remaining minutes were mainly in Woking's favour; Gibbins made a great save from Mortimore, but he was helpless to stop the best goal two minutes from time. A square pass from Stratton to Mortimore was pushed through to Hebdon, who lashed the ball home on the turn.

So Woking won the Amateur Cup for the first time. Many will say that their forwards deserve the credit, they scored 24 goals in seven ties, but their defence proved during that half hour of Ilford's pressure that it was a real team effort that brought the club success.with flashes from Durston, while all refused to admit defeat until Woking's second goal shortly before the end.

AHEAD OF THE GAME

Woking v Solihull Moors
Enterprise National League
Tuesday 14th April 2026
19:45 Kick-off

Tuesday night under the lights sees the Cards welcome Solihull Moors to the Laithwaite Community Stadium, looking to continue momentum from Saturday afternoon, where they put five past Morecambe to see the Shrimps' relegation fate confirmed.

On a busy afternoon, Beautyman increased his tally to ten this term, Drewe netted directly from a corner, Sanderson was at the double, and Ashford found the back of the net against the Shrimps for the second time this campaign.
Sanderson and Drewe were also on the scoresheet when the Cards travelled to take on Solihull earlier in the season, with Kelly the third in a 3-0 victory, the start of a ten-game unbeaten league run for the Surrey side.

Woking also came out on top the last time they hosted the Moors, on February 19th, 2025, with Ward's 18th-minute header the decisive goal in a 1-0 victory. Sitting close in the table, Solihull start the day in 13th, with a total of 52 points thus far. In tenth sit Woking, with their 59 points seeing them just one ahead of a Tamworth side who are also in pursuit of a top-ten finish.

The Lambs, however, have only two remaining fixtures, compared to Woking's three, meaning a crucial three points are on the line for the Cards on Tuesday night, as they attempt to strengthen their grasp on tenth place, and strive to close the gap to Hartlepool in ninth.

Opposition Watch
Recent results have shown strength from the Moors, taking points off play-off placed Southend and Boreham Wood in their last two fixtures.

Against the Wood, on Easter Monday, Solihull ran out 4-1 victors, before they played out a goalless draw at Roots Hall last time out. When extending beyond those two fixtures, however, their form remains mixed, winning just two of their last ten league clashes. When looking specifically at away form, mixed results continue, with their last win on the road coming on January 24th, with a 2-0 victory over Morecambe.

With three remaining fixtures, a top ten finish is unlikely for the Moors, but they can certainly strive to catch Wealdstone, who currently sit just two points ahead, to secure a top-half of the table finish. In order to do so, they will be looking to overturn form at the Laithwaite which has seen them win one in their last five visits, with the Cards victorious on three occasions, and the other a 1-1 draw.

One to Watch
Ben Worman begins the matchday amongst those ranked highest in the league for the number of assists this season, showing his influence from midfield. Indeed, only one has tallied more assists than him this campaign: Boreham Wood's Zak Brunt, who boasts 13 compared to Worman's 11.

Having joined from Gateshead in the summer, he has amassed plenty of National League experience, with the highest number of appearances for Gateshead last term, as well as lifting the FA Trophy with the club in May 2024, as the side defeated his then future club of Solihull on penalties.

Now a key player for the Moors, he will hope to continue his influence midweek, driving goalscoring opportunities from midfield.
